

CLBB NeuroLaw Library

neurolawlibrary.com

"The lack of neuroscience information for defense attorneys, prosecutors, judges and jurors who make life-altering decisions stacks the legal deck. The CLBB NeuroLaw Library will fill this knowledge gap and impact judicial outcomes for countless individuals involved in the criminal justice system."

~ Hon. Nancy Gertner, Federal District Judge (ret.)

Free Information for

- public defenders
- legal and prisoner advocates
- prosecutors
- users of prison libraries
- judges and judicial personnel
- probation and parole officers
- families of persons who are incarcerated

Courses

Working with Forensic Experts

Positive Youth Development

Miller Factors

The Science of Adolescence

Resource Library

Resource Library

🔍 Risk taking

FILTERS

- Amicus Briefs
- Articles
- Cases
- Expert Affidavits

Clear Filters

Frontostriatal Maturation Predicts Cognitive Control Failure to Appetitive Cues in Adolescents

Developmental Patterns of Change in the Influence of Safe and Risky Peer Choices on Risky Decision-making

New Modules

June 2024

Juvenile and Emerging Adult Justice

December 2024

Aging Brain/Elder Fraud Prevention

June 2025

Trauma, Memory and Asylum Law

December 2025

Sentencing Reform

June 2026

Addiction and the Law

Featuring

- open source journal articles
- expert affidavits, white papers and amicus briefs
- extensive indexes and search mechanisms
- neurolaw dictionary and educational videos
- toolkits for attorneys and litigants
- materials presented at five AI-mediated reading levels
- continuous case law updates
- option for consultation with resource librarian

CLBB
CENTER FOR LAW,
BRAIN & BEHAVIOR

Massachusetts General Hospital
Founding Member, Mass General Brigham

HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL
TEACHING HOSPITAL